President's report

Welcome back to training and I hope everyone has had a great Christmas and New Year.

Well this year sees our club very busy once again with our double Championship Show to be held on the 10th March. This is the first time we will be holding a double Championship Show and my thanks must go to Lyn Mansfield for all her hard work in organising this event. A lot of you maybe unaware that there is a lot of work goes on behind the scenes to make sure the Show runs smoothly. Thanks Lyn.

The first of our Obedience Trials will be held on Sunday the 23rd June. At this trial, we will be running a Retrieving Ability Test for Gundogs as well, so I hope plenty of our members get ready to enter this event.

After that the Interclub Challenge Match Day will be held on Saturday, 27th July, and our last Obedience Trial for the year will be held on Saturday, 21st September, followed by our Rally O Trial to be held on the following day, the 22nd September, 2013.

The lighting on our grounds will be improved during February and March. This will allow us more room on the training grounds on a Tuesday night. We will be able to utilise the area over the back for training, which will give us much more space on the main field.

Members are reminded that their dogs must be on lead and that they must check in on arrival at training.

Regards
Ron Probert

Breaking the habit

Bad habits are very rarely the hallmarks of a 'bad' pet. Instead they're often expressions of anxiety or frustration and your household could simply be paying the price for feelings that have become a little lost in translation.

extracted from Medibank Pet Insurance News - by Dr Chris Brown

Sure we've all got a few bad habits. But when it comes to bad habits, our dogs tend to be a little more distracting and even destructive than human mistakes.

But before you worry that your dog is trying to get even with you for last week's vet visit, relax. Bad habits are very rarely the hallmarks of a 'bad' pet. Instead they're often expressions of anxiety or frustration and your household could simply be paying the price for feelings that have become a little lost in translation.

Digging!

Why they do it:

Boredom: Our pets love a project. A job that occupies their very active minds. And if there is no other form of entertainment or exercise around, then digging fits into that job description very nicely. Even if it does destroy your beloved back lawn.

Keep cool: This is often a big surprise. But the fact is that many of our pets (especially long coated dogs) dig holes as a way of finding the cool earth underneath that they can put their paws, noses and even bodies in. If your digging only happens on hot days then this could be your answer.

What to do:

Try to catch them in the act and give a firm 'no'. This is often difficult. Remember, there's almost no point punishing your pet many hours after the digging has been done.

Exercise your pet before leaving them home alone. This makes it easier for them to relax and maybe even sleep away the day.

Provide a project. Time occupying treats and toys can often take their mind off any excavation plans.

Provide an alternative. For dogs that love to dig or for those in need of a cool spot then try offering them a sand pit where they can dig to their hearts content.

Provide a deterrent. Placing material that pets find it unpleasant or even impossible to dig through can help. Try placing small pebbles or stones or even lay chicken wire in areas that you want to keep away from busy paws.

Set a soapy water bomb. You could even consider laying a water bomb just under the soil to convince them that digging isn't desirable. The fact is that dogs will often return to previously dug holes. So by placing a full water bomb at the base of a filled-in hole - the surprise on your dog may discourage them from future digging.

... when you are very large, sit, stand & drop take on a whole new meaning!

Lucky dog

Mary and her husband Jim had a dog named 'Lucky.' Lucky was a real character.

Whenever Mary and Jim had company come for a weekend visit they would warn their friends to not leave their luggage open because Lucky would help himself to whatever struck his fancy. Inevitably, someone would forget and something would come up missing.

Mary or Jim would go to Lucky's toy box in the basement and there the treasure would be, amid all of Lucky's other favorite toys. Lucky always stashed his finds in his toy box and he was very particular that his toys stay in the box.

It happened that Mary found out she had breast cancer. Something told her she was going to die of this disease.....in fact; she was just sure it was fatal.

She scheduled the double mastectomy, fear riding her shoulders. The night before she was to go to the hospital she cuddled with Lucky. A thought struck her....what would happen to Lucky? Although the three-year-old dog liked Jim, he was Mary's dog through and through.

If I die, Lucky will be abandoned, Mary thought. He won't understand that I didn't want to leave him! The thought made her sadder than thinking of her own death.

The double mastectomy was harder on Mary than her doctors had anticipated and Mary was hospitalized for over two weeks. Jim took Lucky for his evening walk faithfully, but the little dog just drooped, whining and miserable.

Finally the day came for Mary to leave the hospital. When she arrived home, Mary was so exhausted she couldn't even make it up the steps to her bedroom. Jim made his wife comfortable on the couch and left her to nap.

Lucky stood watching Mary but he didn't come to her when she called. It made Mary sad but sleep soon overcame her and she dozed.

When Mary woke for a second she couldn't understand what was wrong. She couldn't move her head and her body felt heavy and hot. But panic soon gave way to laughter when Mary realized the problem. She was covered, literally blanketed, with every treasure Lucky owned!

While she had slept, the sorrowing dog had made trip after trip to the basement bringing his beloved mistress all his favorite things in life.

He had covered her with his love.

Mary forgot about dying. Instead she and Lucky began living again, walking further and further together every day. It's been 12 years now and Mary is still cancer-free. Lucky. He still steals treasures and stashes them in his toy box but Mary remains his greatest treasure.

INSTRUCTORS & COMMITTEE CHRISTMAS PARTY 16th December 2012

Every year Blacktown Kennel & Training Club puts on a special night for the Instructors and all committee members and their partners for free, as a thank you for their contribution to the running of the Club. Members of the club are also invited, but they have to pay for their dinner. We usually have a dinner out somewhere followed by a show. This year the committee decided to have a party in our hall.

We had a BBQ spit luncheon followed by dancing. The great music was provided by DJ's, Steve & Leonie Neil who are members of this great club. We had a fabulous day! The food was excellent and the entertainment and music were fantastic. The hall was decorated in the Christmas theme. We had so much fun, I for one, would like to do it all over again this year.

What's an Obedience Title?

By Sandy Mowery

Not just a brag, not just a stepping stone to a higher Title, not just an adjunct to competitive scores, a Title is a tribute to the dog that bears it, a way to honour the dog, an ultimate memorial. It will remain, on record and in memory, for about as long as anything in this world can remain. Few humans will do as well or better in that regard.

And though the dog itself doesn't know or care that its achievements have been noted, a Title says many things in the world of humans where such things count.

A Title says your dog was intelligent and adaptable and good-natured. It says that your dog loved you enough to do the things that pleased you, however crazy they may have sometimes seemed.

A Title says that you loved your dog, that you loved to spend time with it, because it was a good dog that you believed in it enough to give it another chance when it failed and that in the end, your faith was justified.

A Title proves that your dog inspired you to that special relationship enjoyed by so few, that in a world of disposable creatures, this dog with a Title was greatly loved and loved greatly in return.

And when that dear short life is over, the Title remains as a memorial of the finest kind, the best you can give a deserving friend, volumes of praise in one small set of initials after their name.

AN OBEDIENCE TITLE IS NOTHING LESS THAN LOVE AND RESPECT, GIVEN AND RECEIVED AND PERMANENTLY RECORDED.
